Practical Politics.

A political office in a small town in Iowa was vacant. The office paid $250 over to him. To the astonishment of all, however, he was defeated, "I can't account for it," said one of the Democratic leaders gloomily. "With that money, we should have won. How did you lay it out, Ezekiel!"

"Well," said Ezekiel, slowly pulling his whiskers, "yer see, that office only pays $250 a year salary, an' I didn't see no sense in payin' $900 out to get the of-fice; so I bought me a little truck farm instead."--Lippincott's.
